

Proclamation

MONMOUTH COUNTY BOARD OF
CHOSEN FREEHOLDERS

Honoring Mary Elaine Hayden

WHEREAS, Mary Elaine Hayden, an enthusiastic and dedicated teacher from Middletown, NJ is retiring after a half century of teaching; and

WHEREAS, Mary Elaine Hayden began her distinguished career in Philadelphia at St. Ignatius School, going on to teach at St. Genevieve in Elizabeth, St. Jerome in West Long Branch and St. Agnes in Atlantic Highlands; and

WHEREAS, for the past 32 years Mary Elaine Hayden served St. Leo the Great in Lincroft teaching with remarkable grace, creativity, passion and dedication giving her first-graders the gift of learning with professionalism laced with love, humor, moral values and a strong sense of God, country and family; and

WHEREAS, additionally, Mary Elaine Hayden volunteered her time to teach Confraternity of Christian Doctrine to children, the adult religious education program Right of Christian Initiation for Adults and she would often tutor students, free of charge, during the summer months; and

WHEREAS, during her 50-year career Mary Elaine Hayden worked tirelessly infusing her love of education with commitment, dedication, integrity and kindness on behalf of her students, and serving as a positive role model and providing guidance and direction for many new teachers with whom she worked.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is the desire of the Board of Chosen Freeholders that on the occasion of her retirement, she be commended for the great service that she has bestowed instilling the importance of education, self esteem, responsibility, and good citizenship in many generations of our young citizens, and proclaiming this day, July 29, 2011 as

“Mary Elaine Hayden Day”

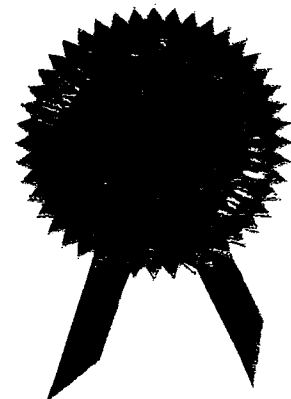

Robert D. Clifton
ROBERT D. CLIFTON

Thomas A. Arnone
THOMAS A. ARNONE

John P. Curley
JOHN P. CURLEY

Amy A. Mallet
AMY A. MALLETT

Lillian G. Burry
LILLIAN G. BURRY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I HAVE HEREUNTO SET MY HAND
AND CAUSED THE OFFICIAL SEAL OF THE COUNTY OF MONMOUTH TO BE HERETO AFFIXED.
Adopted on: July 29, 2011
Official Resolution#: